

The Peace Officer's Guide to the Hawaii Criminal Code is a newly designed pocket-sized quick reference to the Hawaii Revised Statutes. This book enables every law enforcement officer to carry a legal reference in a pocket, briefcase, glove box, or citation holder for use in the field. Rounded corners, a slim design, and sturdy cover makes this a useful and tough companion. It is the most popular book on Hawaii law.

What Our Customers Say

"I used the Peace Officer's Guide to the Hawaii Criminal Code for 22 years as a police officer in the State of Hawaii. I always kept a current edition of the Guide (book) with me while on duty."

Officer Bill Melton (retired)
Maui Police Department

Sample Page

Unique Features

- Major Update - 25 new and updated laws, 28 new and updated glossary of terms, and 299 pages.
- Pocket Size - 3 5/8" wide x 5 3/8" high x 1/4" thick and weighs 4 ounces.
- Glossary & Index - Chapters for quick access to terms, laws and content.
- Contemporary - 2020 Hawaii Legislative changes to statutes
- Excerpts from 34 Hawaii Revised Statute Chapters: 115, 132, 132D, 134, 136, 183, 183D, 184, 188, 200, 245, 281, 291, 291E, 327L, 329, 346, 356D, 445, 452, 586, 705, 706, 707, 708, 708A, 709, 710, 711, 712, 842, 844D, 846E, and 852.

Best Book on Hawaii Law